

CaptureOne Construction Progression Photo Editing

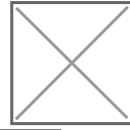

1. Click Customer Folder in Capture One
2. Click on the project you are working on
3. Right click on the project name
4. Click "New inside "5021 Bryan St""
5. Click "Album"
6. Enter the current capture date and click "Create"
7. Click on the current album
8. Locate the current capture images
9. Select all pictures and drag them into the dark grey empty space inside CaptureOne
10. Click "Pick all" to select all Images
11. Click "Import All"
12. Click on the first image
13. Hold the "Shift" button and click on the last image to select all images

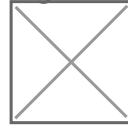

14. Click on the symbol for the leveling tool

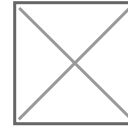

15. Select a well visible part of the horizon on the left side of the image

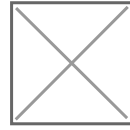

16. Click on a part of the horizon on the right, the image will level.

17. Click on the dropdown menu symbol for the "Auto Adjust" tool.

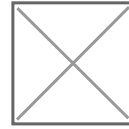

18. Deselect all options except for "Exposure" and "Contrast and Brightness".

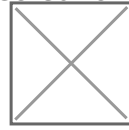

19. Click "Auto Adjust"

20. Confirm after checking that all images are selected for Auto Adjust.

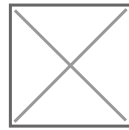

21. Click "Adjust" to manually adjust the pictures.

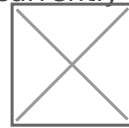

22. Use the sliders or change the values in the respective fields to color correct the images.

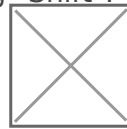

23. Click the left arrow to copy the values of the currently selected image.

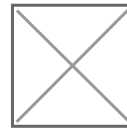

24. Select the other images while holding "Shift".

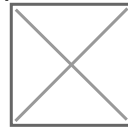

25. Click on the dropdown menu symbol.

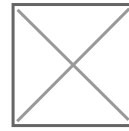

26. Make sure that only Contrast and Saturation are selected.

27. Click the right arrow to apply the changes to the images.

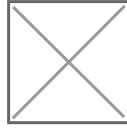

28. Select all images again.

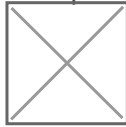

29. Finish Manual adjustments for remaining images.

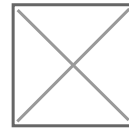

30. Click "Export"

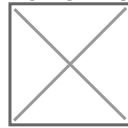

31. Click on the target folder dropdown

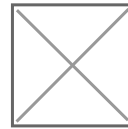

32. Click "Choose Folder..."

33. Navigate to the destination folder for the Export.

34. Click "Select Folder"

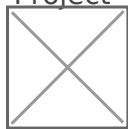

35. Click the three dots to change the naming format.

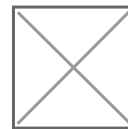

36. Confirm that the Naming Structure is set up in such a way that it creates "YYYY_MM_DD -

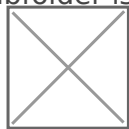

Company - Project"

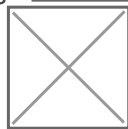

37. Click "OK"

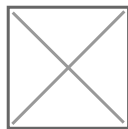

38. Make Sure that the Subfolder is named "FRAMELESS"

39. Click "Export Images"

40. Click "Export" again

41. Change the Subfolder name to "FULL"

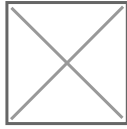

42. Open "Affinity Photo 2"

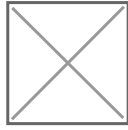

43. Click "_File"

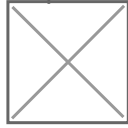

44. Click "Open..."

45. Navigate to the picture frame project file.

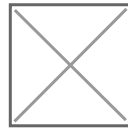

46. Click "Open"

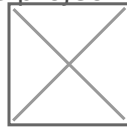

47. Select the text tool

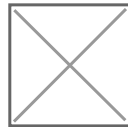

48. Change the project date to the current capture date,

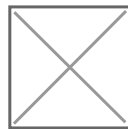

49. Click "File"

50. Click "Export..."

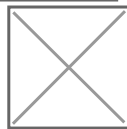

51. Click on the export format dropdown

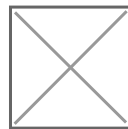

52. Select "PNG"

53. Click "Export"

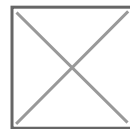

54. Navigate to the export folder.

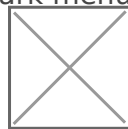

55. Click "Save"

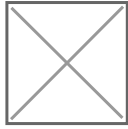

56. Click the "Kind" dropdown in the Watermark menu and change it to "Image".

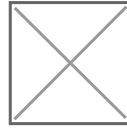

57. Click on the three dots for the file source

58. Find the frame file that was exported out of Affinity Photo.

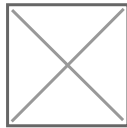

59. Click "Open"

60. Confirm that the frame leaves no gap on the edges.

61. If there are gaps, change the "Scale", "Horizontal", and "Vertical" values until this is fixed.

62. Click "Export 16 Images"

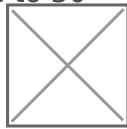

63. Click "Export"

64. Change the Subfolder Name to "WEB"

65. Change the Quality Value to 30

66. Click "Export 16 Images" <https://wiki.txdroneco.com/link/215#bkmrk-%23%23%23%23-%5Bmade-with-scri>

Revision #2

Created 2026-08-10 20:34:57 UTC by Jake

Updated 2026-08-10 20:35:33 UTC by Jake